

FEDERAL ROUND-UP OF BANDIT BANDS 50 JAILED AT NACO

Both Factions Active in Sonora; Reports Put on Near Hermosillo With 800 Men

Activity in Sonora on the part of both federal and rebel forces was noted yesterday afternoon. One report was of federal successes in the north, and the other was that the rebels were threatening Hermosillo, the capital of the state. The former is known to be authentic, but the latter was sent out as a report of the whereabouts of one of the rebel forces.

Yesterday a force of federals that has been engaged in rounding up rebel bands or bandit bands, returned to Naco and brought with them fifty prisoners. For some time past there have been reports of small bands scattered about at various points south of and near the line, and these, or some of them, are the prisoners that were taken. To do this, it is clear, a considerable force of federals is operating out of Naco and in that vicinity.

The other information sent from Naco was to the effect that General Rojas was at La Colorado, near Hermosillo, and had a force of 800 revolutionaries and was threatening the capital. Rojas was in command of the rebel forces that have been operating about La Dura and the head waters of the Yaqui river, and who has been reported to have been engaged by Kosterlitzky.

If this be so, it would appear that Rojas abandoned the path along the river and the railroad and cut north westerly across country, making Hermosillo and not Guaymas his objective point. There had been no verification of the report relative to Rojas received in Naco last evening.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT, PRECINCT NO. TWO, COUNTY OF COCHISE, STATE OF ARIZONA

Before M. C. High, Justice of the Peace, in and for said Precinct, in said County & State.

SUMMONS

L. A. Brown, Plaintiff,

VS.

W. F. Glenn, Defendant.

ACTION brought in the Justice Court of Precinct No. Two, in and for the County of Cochise, in the State of Arizona

IN THE Name of the State of Arizona,

To W. F. Glenn, Defendant, GREETING:

YOU are hereby summoned and required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Justice Court of Precinct No. Two, in and for the County of Cochise, in the State of Arizona, and answer to the Complaint filed in said Justice Court, at Bisbee, in said County, within five days exclusive of the day of service after the service upon you of this summons, if served within this Precinct, but if served without this Precinct, but within the County, ten days; if served out of the County, fifteen days; in all other cases, twenty days, or judgment by default will be rendered against you.

Given under my hand at Bisbee, Ariz., this 8th day of July, A. D. 1912.

M. C. HIGH,

Justice of the Peace of said Precinct.

409.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior.

U. S. Land Office at Phoenix, Arizona,

August 8, 1912.

NOTICE is hereby given that Charles Eberling, of Bisbee, Arizona, who, on April 17, 1908, made Homestead Entry, No. 6882, for SW 1/4 NE 1/4, NW 1/4 SE 1/4, NE 1/4 SW 1/4 and SE 1/4 NW 1/4, Section 7, Township 24 S., Range 24 E., G. & S. R. Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make Final Three Year Proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before J. D. Taylor, U. S. Commissioner, at Bisbee, Arizona, on the 17th day of September, 1912.

Claimant names as witnesses:

William Eberling, of Bisbee, Arizona.

James L. B. Parks, of Naco, Arizona.

William Alford, of Naco, Arizona.

Charles W. Hall, of Don Luis, Arizona.

FRANK H. PARKER,

919.

Register.

Mr. W. S. Gansalus, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa., says he has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for fourteen years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy, and takes pleasure in recommending it for sale by all dealers.

778.

How The Body Kills Germs.

Germs that get into the body are killed in two ways—by the white corpuscles of the blood, and by a germ-killing substance in the blood.

The blood of a healthy person always has some germ-killing substance in it to ward off the attack of disease. The fountain head of life is the stomach. A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished. To put the body in healthy condition, to feed the system on rich, red blood, and to throw out the poisons from the body, nothing in the past forty years has excelled Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a pure glyceric extract (without alcohol), of bloodroot, golden seal and Oregon grape root, stone root, mandrake and queen's root with black cherry bark.

"My husband was a sufferer from stomach trouble and impaired blood," writes Mrs. J. H. MARTIN, of Tangle Creek, Ky. "He had a sore on his face that would turn a scab which would drop off in about a month, then another would immediately form. It continued this way for a long time. He tried every remedy that any one would suggest, but found no relief. He then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stayed cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

J. H. MARTIN, Esq.

WATCH OUR WINDOW

for latest styles, Hair

Ornaments, Braid Pins,

Hair Pins and Barrettes.

Also Collars, Ties, Hat

Belt and Beauty Pins.

McDONALD'S

BEAUTY SHOP

COMEDY A FEATURE

AT THE ROYAL THEATRE

The greatest comedy that has been produced this season will be shown at the Royal today, entitled "Half A Hero."

The hero in this picture is only half a hero, but he makes a "hit" with his sweetheart's father just the same. He is just preparing to elope with the only girl in the world when a fire occurs in the house. He appears from the burning building with the girl and places her tragically in her father's arms, amid the excitement and applause of the assembled crowd and firemen, who at this moment appear upon the scene. It all happens in a funny way, and will prove a delight to all who see it. The other pictures on the program are the cream of the licensed producers.

Everyone should make it a point to witness this excellent program today either at the matinee, which starts at 2:30, or the evening performance, as this program will be the bill for today only the Flynn-Johnson light pictures being the offering for Monday and Tuesday.

SOCIAL NOTES

Invitations have been issued by the Ladies of the Maccabees to a dance in Fair hall Tuesday evening.

Brennan's orchestra will furnish the music, and an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

About forty friends of Mrs. Harz, of upper Tombstone canyon, were entertained at a birthday party Saturday evening. Games and music furnished the entertainment, and much merriment was caused by cutting the birthday cake. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

The B. Y. P. U. society of the Baptist church will give an outdoor social at the church Thursday evening.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church held an ice cream social for the benefit of the league Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hiller, of Tombstone canyon. The lawn was decorated with Japanese lanterns, and a large crowd made merry on the lawn and veranda.

TO MY CUSTOMERS AND THOSE INTERESTED: I have moved my Dressmaking Parlors from Quality Hill to next to Masonic building, back of Miss Riley's School.

MISS LOWERY.

"LITTLE MAJOR" DIES

OAKLAND, Aug. 17.—D. T. Annette Guckel, famous as the "Little Major" of the Union army, because of his services in the Civil war, died tonight after eight decades of remarkable life. He served in many of the bloodiest battles.

JURY ACQUITS CLARENCE DARROW

(Continued from Page 1.)

The bank clerk testified he paid Franklin only $50 and $100 bills. Fredrickson declared today that clerk's testimony was the result of an error in memory.

Instructions Favorable

Though warned by the court in stern tones against any demonstration there was a spontaneous outburst when Foreman M. R. Williams, in response to that court's query if a verdict had been reached, announced they found Darrow not guilty.

Instantly there was a rush for the defendant. The bailiffs for a moment stopped the demonstration, but it was again renewed and amid the hubbub the court thanked the jury and discharged them.

Then ensued a remarkable scene. Darrow, approaching the jurors who were still in the box, thanked them individually, when two of them, Dunbar and Golding threw their arms around his neck and patted him on the back. The other jurors reached forward and shook his hands.

The scene gradually resolved itself into a reception for the accused and counsel, nearly all in the court room coming forward to congratulate him connected with the defense while the flash lights of newspaper cameras boomed from every angle.

The court met at eight this morning to the instructions to the jury occupied one hour. Then, after a short delay the jury retired.

The instructions were considered favorable to the defendant, as they eliminated count number one of the indictment, which charged Darrow with bribing G. N. Lockwood, which was the real charge, he was tried upon.

The court told the jurors that evidence of accomplices, given as such or under promise of immunity, would not be considered unless corroborated. As neither Franklin or J. R. Harrington were corroborated by any witnesses it was seen that the instructions practically meant an acquittal.

History of Case.

A direct outcome of the abrupt ending last November of the trial of James B. McNamara for the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the McNamara brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of Geo. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On November 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief detective of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On December 1, the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty; J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying The Times building, and John J. McNamara to dynamiting the Jewelllyn Iron Works.

On January 15, Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney W. Jos. Ford that he had bribed Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara cases and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood. The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him and from that time he acted under instruction of the prosecutor.

Indictment of Darrow.

On January 29, two indictments were returned by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood upon arraignment the lawyer entered pleas of not guilty.

The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15 and just 13 weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal trial ever held in Los Angeles county. During that time approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporter for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000. The entire cost of the trial was close to $20,000.

Starting of Trial.

In the main case of the prosecution which began with the completion of the jury on May 25, thirty-eight witnesses testified and exactly the same number of witnesses were introduced by the defense. On rebuttal the number of state witnesses were swelled to fifty. The prosecution rested on July 8 and the defense ended on August 5 after a lengthy cross examination of Darrow, who occupied the stand a week. Four days were occupied by the state in rebuttal and both sides finally rested on August 9. In presenting the case against Darrow the prosecution produced evidence purporting to show that in addition to the alleged corruption of jurors, Darrow had been guilty of tampering with state witnesses in the McNamara case.

The chief reliance of the defense was that the agreement between the prosecution and defense under which the McNamara entered their pleas of guilty, was made prior to the alleged bribery of Lockwood and that there was therefore no occasion for corrupting jurors. It was also maintained throughout that Darrow was the victim of a "frame up" on the part of Franklin and the authorities.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

DR. T. Felix Goureaud's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier.

Goureaud's Cream is the best beauty product for sale by all druggists and fancy goods dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe.

SEND T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

dence of accomplices, given as such or under promise of immunity, would not be considered unless corroborated.

As neither Franklin or J. R. Harrington were corroborated by any witnesses it was seen that the instructions practically meant an acquittal.

History of Case.

A direct outcome of the abrupt ending last November of the trial of James B. McNamara for the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, the trial of Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the McNamara brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of Geo. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On November 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief detective of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On December 1, the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty; J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying The Times building, and John J. McNamara to dynamiting the Jewelllyn Iron Works.

On January 15, Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney W. Jos. Ford that he had bribed Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara cases and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood. The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him and from that time he acted under instruction of the prosecutor.

Indictment of Darrow.

On January 29, two indictments were returned by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood upon arraignment the lawyer entered pleas of not guilty.

The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15 and just 13 weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal trial ever held in Los Angeles county. During that time approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporter for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000. The entire cost of the trial was close to $20,000.

Starting of Trial.

In the main case of the prosecution which began with the completion of the jury on May 25, thirty-eight witnesses testified and exactly the same number of witnesses were introduced by the defense. On rebuttal the number of state witnesses were swelled to fifty. The prosecution rested on July 8 and the defense ended on August 5 after a lengthy cross examination of Darrow, who occupied the stand a week. Four days were occupied by the state in rebuttal and both sides finally rested on August 9. In presenting the case against Darrow the prosecution produced evidence purporting to show that in addition to the alleged corruption of jurors, Darrow had been guilty of tampering with state witnesses in the McNamara case.

The chief reliance of the defense was that the agreement between the prosecution and defense under which the McNamara entered their pleas of guilty, was made prior to the alleged bribery of Lockwood and that there was therefore no occasion for corrupting jurors. It was also maintained throughout that Darrow was the victim of a "frame up" on the part of Franklin and the authorities.

Says He Was Bribed

Robert F. Bain

brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of Geo. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On November 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief detective of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On December 1, the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty; J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying The Times building, and John J. McNamara to dynamiting the Jewelllyn Iron Works.

On January 15, Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney W. Jos. Ford that he had bribed Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara cases and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood. The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him and from that time he acted under instruction of the prosecutor.

Indictment of Darrow.

On January 29, two indictments were returned by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood upon arraignment the lawyer entered pleas of not guilty.

The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15 and just 13 weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal trial ever held in Los Angeles county. During that time approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporter for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000. The entire cost of the trial was close to $20,000.

Starting of Trial.

In the main case of the prosecution which began with the completion of the jury on May 25, thirty-eight witnesses testified and exactly the same number of witnesses were introduced by the defense. On rebuttal the number of state witnesses were swelled to fifty. The prosecution rested on July 8 and the defense ended on August 5 after a lengthy cross examination of Darrow, who occupied the stand a week. Four days were occupied by the state in rebuttal and both sides finally rested on August 9. In presenting the case against Darrow the prosecution produced evidence purporting to show that in addition to the alleged corruption of jurors, Darrow had been guilty of tampering with state witnesses in the McNamara case.

The chief reliance of the defense was that the agreement between the prosecution and defense under which the McNamara entered their pleas of guilty, was made prior to the alleged bribery of Lockwood and that there was therefore no occasion for corrupting jurors. It was also maintained throughout that Darrow was the victim of a "frame up" on the part of Franklin and the authorities.

Says He Was Bribed

Robert F. Bain

brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of Geo. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On November 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief detective of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On December 1, the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty; J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying The Times building, and John J. McNamara to dynamiting the Jewelllyn Iron Works.

On January 15, Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney W. Jos. Ford that he had bribed Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara cases and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood. The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him and from that time he acted under instruction of the prosecutor.

Indictment of Darrow.

On January 29, two indictments were returned by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood upon arraignment the lawyer entered pleas of not guilty.

The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15 and just 13 weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal trial ever held in Los Angeles county. During that time approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporter for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000. The entire cost of the trial was close to $20,000.

Starting of Trial.

In the main case of the prosecution which began with the completion of the jury on May 25, thirty-eight witnesses testified and exactly the same number of witnesses were introduced by the defense. On rebuttal the number of state witnesses were swelled to fifty. The prosecution rested on July 8 and the defense ended on August 5 after a lengthy cross examination of Darrow, who occupied the stand a week. Four days were occupied by the state in rebuttal and both sides finally rested on August 9. In presenting the case against Darrow the prosecution produced evidence purporting to show that in addition to the alleged corruption of jurors, Darrow had been guilty of tampering with state witnesses in the McNamara case.

The chief reliance of the defense was that the agreement between the prosecution and defense under which the McNamara entered their pleas of guilty, was made prior to the alleged bribery of Lockwood and that there was therefore no occasion for corrupting jurors. It was also maintained throughout that Darrow was the victim of a "frame up" on the part of Franklin and the authorities.

Says He Was Bribed

Robert F. Bain

brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of Geo. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On November 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief detective of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On December 1, the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty; J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying The Times building, and John J. McNamara to dynamiting the Jewelllyn Iron Works.

On January 15, Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney W. Jos. Ford that he had bribed Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara cases and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood. The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him and from that time he acted under instruction of the prosecutor.

Indictment of Darrow.

On January 29, two indictments were returned by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood upon arraignment the lawyer entered pleas of not guilty.

The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15 and just 13 weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal trial ever held in Los Angeles county. During that time approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporter for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000. The entire cost of the trial was close to $20,000.

Starting of Trial.

In the main case of the prosecution which began with the completion of the jury on May 25, thirty-eight witnesses testified and exactly the same number of witnesses were introduced by the defense. On rebuttal the number of state witnesses were swelled to fifty. The prosecution rested on July 8 and the defense ended on August 5 after a lengthy cross examination of Darrow, who occupied the stand a week. Four days were occupied by the state in rebuttal and both sides finally rested on August 9. In presenting the case against Darrow the prosecution produced evidence purporting to show that in addition to the alleged corruption of jurors, Darrow had been guilty of tampering with state witnesses in the McNamara case.

The chief reliance of the defense was that the agreement between the prosecution and defense under which the McNamara entered their pleas of guilty, was made prior to the alleged bribery of Lockwood and that there was therefore no occasion for corrupting jurors. It was also maintained throughout that Darrow was the victim of a "frame up" on the part of Franklin and the authorities.

Says He Was Bribed

Robert F. Bain

brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of Geo. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On November 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief detective of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On December 1, the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty; J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying The Times building, and John J. McNamara to dynamiting the Jewelllyn Iron Works.

On January 15, Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney W. Jos. Ford that he had bribed Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara cases and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood. The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him and from that time he acted under instruction of the prosecutor.

Indictment of Darrow.

On January 29, two indictments were returned by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood upon arraignment the lawyer entered pleas of not guilty.

The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15 and just 13 weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal trial ever held in Los Angeles county. During that time approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporter for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000. The entire cost of the trial was close to $20,000.

Starting of Trial.

In the main case of the prosecution which began with the completion of the jury on May 25, thirty-eight witnesses testified and exactly the same number of witnesses were introduced by the defense. On rebuttal the number of state witnesses were swelled to fifty. The prosecution rested on July 8 and the defense ended on August 5 after a lengthy cross examination of Darrow, who occupied the stand a week. Four days were occupied by the state in rebuttal and both sides finally rested on August 9. In presenting the case against Darrow the prosecution produced evidence purporting to show that in addition to the alleged corruption of jurors, Darrow had been guilty of tampering with state witnesses in the McNamara case.

The chief reliance of the defense was that the agreement between the prosecution and defense under which the McNamara entered their pleas of guilty, was made prior to the alleged bribery of Lockwood and that there was therefore no occasion for corrupting jurors. It was also maintained throughout that Darrow was the victim of a "frame up" on the part of Franklin and the authorities.

Says He Was Bribed

Robert F. Bain

brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery of Geo. N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara case.

On November 28, 1911, Bert H. Franklin, chief detective of the McNamara defense, was arrested for the bribery of Lockwood. On December 1, the McNamara brothers pleaded guilty; J. B. McNamara to murder in destroying The Times building, and John J. McNamara to dynamiting the Jewelllyn Iron Works.

On January 15, Franklin made a confession to Assistant District Attorney W. Jos. Ford that he had bribed Robert F. Bain, the first juror sworn to try the McNamara cases and that he had sought to bribe five other prospective jurors, including Lockwood. The latter had reported early in November to the district attorney that Franklin had approached him and from that time he acted under instruction of the prosecutor.

Indictment of Darrow.

On January 29, two indictments were returned by the county grand jury against Darrow for the alleged bribery of Bain and Lockwood upon arraignment the lawyer entered pleas of not guilty.

The trial on the Lockwood indictment was begun on May 15 and just 13 weeks and two days elapsed until the case went to the jury, making it the longest criminal trial ever held in Los Angeles county. During that time approximately 2,000,000 words were transcribed by the court reporter for which the cost to the county was something like $6,000. The entire cost of the trial was close to $20,000.

Starting of Trial.

In the main case of the prosecution which began with the completion of the jury on May 25, thirty-eight witnesses testified and exactly the same number of witnesses were introduced by the defense. On rebuttal the number of state witnesses were swelled to fifty. The prosecution rested on July 8 and the defense ended on August 5 after a lengthy cross examination of Darrow, who occupied the stand a week. Four days were occupied by the state in rebuttal and both sides finally rested on August 9. In presenting the case against Darrow the prosecution produced evidence purporting to show that in addition to the alleged corruption of jurors, Darrow had been guilty of tampering with state witnesses in the McNamara case.

The chief reliance of the defense was that the agreement between the prosecution and defense under which the McNamara entered their pleas of guilty, was made prior to the alleged bribery of Lockwood and that there was therefore no occasion for corrupting jurors. It was also maintained throughout that Darrow was the victim of a "frame up" on the part of Franklin and the authorities.

Says He Was Bribed

Robert F. Bain

brothers, was the result of an indictment by the county grand jury for the alleged bribery